Subject: eBay Unfair Practices

Hi. I understand I can voice my opinion regarding eBay's moves to monopolise with the "PayPal-only" payment method to you. I believe that this is almost criminal, and certainly would wish you guys to look into how legal all this is. My slim profits getting eaten up in both eBay and PayPal fees is not your concern; whether or not eBay is breaking the law with unfair and illegal trading practices is. I assume if Coles made buyers use their own credit card as the only form of payment while shopping there you would do something about it. I don't see any difference in that, except that it is the seller copping all the charges (buyers will be forced to use PayPal though, and many don't even want to open a credit card account). Thanks.
