Dear ACCC

I wish to make a formal complaint against eBay Australia who is seeking for exemption from provisions of the Trade Practices Act and to be permitted to force all members of eBay to pay for all transaction using their own company Paypal.

This anti-competiive third line forcing will have a hugely negative financial effect on all eBay members like myself, particularly those selling on the site.

This is perceived to be the case by almost ALL members of the community, the reactions of whom are documented on eBay's discussion forums.

Please do not allow these changes to occur

Yours Faithfully,

Simon Kain
