Dear Mr. Roy,

I hope the ACCC will deny ebay/paypal's application to require that ebay sellers must use paypal as their only form of accepting payments. I live in the USA and know that ebay/paypal is doing this as a test in Australia and planning to require ebayers everywhere to use their form of payment (paypal) if they are successful in Australia. I believe this constitutes a monopoly which I thought was illegal.

I would be happy for you to quote me publicly.

Thank you,
