

Macrae, Tess

Subject: FW: Ebay [SEC=UNCLASSIFIED]
Categories: SEC=UNCLASSIFIED
ACCC Classification: SEC=UNCLASSIFIED

From: Sandra Thomas [mailto:
Sent: Wednesday, 18 June 2008 12:16 PM
To: Adjudication
Subject: Ebay

EXCLUDED FROM PUBLIC REGISTRY

Dear Sir,

RE EBAY'S PROPOSED CHANGES MAKING EBAY USERS TO USE PAYPAL

I wish to lodge my objection in the strongest terms to Ebay's standover tactics to enforce its Ebay customers- both, buyers/sellers to use Paypal only as their accepted form of payment, and COD, or payment on pick-up.

I have been an Ebay user for several years, I do have Paypal, which I use when the other party will not accept Direct Deposit, and I have to say this is rarely, as most Ebayers prefer Direct Deposit or Money order. It costs me money to transfer funds out of Paypal and into my bank account, which riles me because Ebay is double dipping in as much as they have already charged one lot of fees to sell.

I know many people using Ebay who are already moving to other similar selling/buying places because of Ebay's stance. I will do so as well if this goes ahead. I believe we cannot be dictated to, and be told what terms we MUST use to sell items. I have never once had a problem with a buyer paying directly into my bank account, so where Ebay are coming from saying there are too many disputes re payment's I have no idea. My feedback with buyer's and seller's is 100% and for that I am proud, and it show's Ebay that people like myself are doing the right thing.

Could you please look into this complaint on behalf of Ebay's trusted clients, who after all only want the right to choose their own forms of payment, not Ebay's dictatorship.

Many thanks.

Sandra Thomas

<address excluded>

EXCLUDED FROM PUBLIC REGISTER