Subject: In Support of ACCC revoking immunity for eBay's PayPal only policy

Dear Sir/Madam

I have read the eBay notification and their submissions to the ACCC about exclusive dealing. I have also read many submissions against the proposed conduct and the ACCC's draft notice of revocation.

I agree with the ACCC's draft notice as I believe eBay's proposed conduct would decrease competition and not have an overall public benefit.

I was one of the almost 700 people/organisations that lodged a submission against ebay's proposal.

I have been selling on ebay since 2005 and have only ever accepted direct deposit or money order as payment for items

If I choose to sell on ebay and only accept direct deposit and a buyer wishes to accept my payment terms, then it is no one elses business apart from the buyer and seller. ebay are only providng the venue for the sale to take place and are in no way, shape or form involved in my sale/transaction - this has been the terms since I joined ebay in 2005.

The buyers and sellers I have dealt with in the past have all been happy to accept and pay by direct deposit and money orders.

We are a free country. Why should we be dictated to by a bully? The many changes have seen me leave ebay. I am now trading on Australian site Oztion. There I enjoy the freedom of choice. My buyers can pay by whatever means I find appropriate. Very little in the way of fees and FREEDOM OF CHOICE. Plus the bonus of keeping my money in Australia and not feeding these corporate bully boys.

I would appreciate you taking into account my additional comments in this email and thank you for your valued consideration of the matter and eventually to revoke immunity for ebay's PayPal only policy and as stated allow direct deposit only as a payment option if a seller chooses this option.

Regards,
