Subject: Spam: Ebay's Compulsory Paypal Payments

Dear Sir/Madam,

I have been an ebay buyer-only since December 2000, with a faultless record as a buyer.

I agree 100% with the member submissions rejecting the proposed Paypal only method of payment.

Would you please consider that this method of payment forces buyers to use a Credit Card for Paypal.

You are aware that the current financial situation for many Australians are at a critical stage and much of this can be laid at the overuse (but in some cases the necessary) of using credit cards.

This is adding to the Australian debt level.

To place vulnerable people in a position where they have to use credit cards is appalling. Especially when they are trying to purchase used items at bargain prices from ebay because they can no longer afford to pay the prices at regular shops.

Please give some thought to what I have said, not just for the benefit of ebay sellers and buyers, but for community in general.
