Dear Mr Patel

Third line forcing notification N93726 lodged by Anon Nominees Pty Ltd

I refer to the above third line forcing notification lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 22 December 2008. This notification has been placed on the ACCC's public register.

Anon has described the notified conduct as follows:

The proposed conduct comprises the giving or offering of a discount in relation to the supply or proposed supply of motor fuels by United Petroleum to consumers purchasing these products at participating service stations in Western Australia, on the condition that the consumer has purchased prescribed groceries (of a qualifying amount) at participating IGA stores nominated by IGA Distribution (WA) Pty Limited.

Legal immunity conferred by the notification commenced on 5 January 2009.

The ACCC has considered the above notification in light of submissions previously put to it by interested parties in relation to similar notifications and its own investigations. In light of this previous consideration and the information you have provided, the ACCC does not intend to take any further action at this stage.

Please note, as with any notification, the ACCC may act to remove the immunity afforded by this notification at a later stage if it becomes satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

I also note that in promoting the offer consumers should be made aware of any exclusions or conditions that may apply.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Lauren Roy on (02) 6243 4940.

Yours sincerely
