Subject: Medicines Australia application for revocation and substitution - interested party submissions [SEC=UNCLASSIFIED]

Categories: SEC=UNCLASSIFIED
ACCC Classification: SEC=UNCLASSIFIED

Dear Fiona and Anna

The ACCC has received the majority of expected submissions from interested parties concerning Medicines Australia's applications for revocation and substitution of the Code of Conduct edition 16. If any further submissions are received, they will be forwarded to you.

The submissions received are available from the ACCC's website via the following link. A submission from the TGA should appear on the website within the next day.
<http://www.accc.gov.au/content/index.phtml?itemId=880195&display=submission>

We invite your response to the issues raised by interested parties. It would be appreciated if you could please provide your response by 19 August 2009. The ACCC will continue with its assessment of the applications. We will contact you if we have any questions.

This email will be placed on the public register. Should you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact me (02) 6243 1351.

Regards
