- (b) Description of the conduct or proposed conduct:

(i) Vero proposes to, from time to time:

- supply, and offer to supply, insurance-related goods and services (or certain insurance-related goods and services) (Insurance Products) at a particular price; and
- give or allow, and offer to give or allow a discount, allowance, rebate,
- or credit in relation to the supply of Insurance Products, on the condition that the person who acquires the Insurance Products will acquire services from Newcastle Permanent Building Society Ltd (NPBS).

(ii) Vero may from time to time refuse to:

- Supply Insurance Products at a particular price; and
- give or allow a discount, allowance, rebate or credit in relation to the supply of Insurance Products, for the reason that the person wishing to acquire the Insurance Product has not acquired or has not agreed to acquire services from NPBS.

(Refer to direction 4)

Vero relies on the arguments set out in item 4(a).

5. Market definition

Provide a description of the market(s) in which the goods or services described at 2 (a) are supplied or acquired and other affected markets including: significant suppliers and acquirers; substitutes available for the relevant goods or services; any restriction on the supply or acquisition of the relevant goods or services (for example geographic or legal restrictions):

(Refer to direction 8)

The market for the supply of general insurance.

6. Public detriments

- (a) Detriments to the public resulting or likely to result from the notification, in particular the likely effect of the notified conduct on the prices of the goods or services described at 2 (a) above and the prices of goods or services in other affected markets:
(Refer to direction 9)

Vero considers that any public detriment is likely to be minimal (if any) for the following reasons:

- NPBS customers are not obliged to acquire insurance products from Vero: they are free to acquire insurance from another insurer (of which there are many in a competitive market) or not acquire insurance at all.
- The notified conduct is not designed to allow Vero to refuse to offer insurance to any person: the issue relates only to the price of that insurance and whether the customer is eligible for a discount, allowance, credit or rebate.
- The conduct is unlikely to appreciably affect competition in either the general insurance market or the banking market, each of which is competitive.

- (b) Facts and evidence relevant to these detriments:

Vero relies on the arguments set out in item 6(a).
