Dear Mr Nicotra

Third line forcing notifications N94670 to N94672 lodged by Priority Pass (A.P.) Ltd and others

I refer to the above third line forcing notifications lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 29 April 2010. The notifications have been placed on the ACCC's public register.

Priority Pass (A.P.) Ltd and Australian Wine Selectors Pty Ltd propose to offer customers a discount on Priority Pass Membership and wine products respectively on condition the customer pays for the purchase using a Macquarie Bank Ltd Platinum, Gold or RateSaver credit card. Pacific Boating Group Pty Ltd proposes to offer customers a discount on Pacific Boating Membership on condition the customer pays using a Macquarie Bank Platinum card.

Legal immunity conferred by the notification will commence on 13 May 2010.

On the basis of the information that you have provided, it is not intended that further action be taken in this matter at this stage. As with any notification, please note that the ACCC may act to remove the immunity afforded by the notification at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

This assessment has been made on the basis that Priority Pass, Australian Wine Selectors, Pacific Boating Group and Macquarie Bank will disclose all relevant terms and conditions to prospective clients.

A copy of this letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please contact John Rouw on (03) 9290 1402.

Yours sincerely
