Dear Mr Clowes

Third line forcing notification N94900 lodged by Concept Computer Systems

I refer to the above third line forcing notification lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 30 August 2010. The notification has been placed on the ACCC's public register.

Concept Computer Systems proposes to offer a range of telecommunications and related goods or services (including Tbox, Thub & Apple products, mobile phones, cordless phones, phone cards and other telecommunications equipment, software, hand held computers, data products, wireless broadband, ADSL fixed and internet products and internet starter packs) and/or promotional goods or services (including vouchers, electrical goods and accessories and food items) to customers on condition that they acquire telecommunications services and/or related goods or services from Telstra.

Legal immunity conferred by the notification commenced on 13 September 2010.

On the basis of the information that you have provided, it is not intended that further action be taken in this matter at this stage.

As with any notification, please note that the ACCC may act to remove the immunity afforded by the notification at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

This assessment has been made on the basis that Concept Computer Systems will disclose all relevant terms and conditions to prospective customers.

A copy of this letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Tess Macrae on (03) 9290 1835.

Yours sincerely
