(ii) refuse to supply or refuse to offer to supply a Dealer Product and/or promotional product to retail customers for the reason that the customer has not acquired or has not agreed to acquire telecommunications services or products or particular telecommunications' service plans from Telstra

(iii) give or allow or offer to give or allow a discount, allowance, rebate or credit in relation to a Dealer Product and/or Promotional Product to retail customers on the condition that the customer acquires or agrees to acquire telecommunication service plans from Telstra.

(Refer to direction 4)

3. Persons, or classes of persons, affected or likely to be affected by the notified conduct

(a) Class or classes of persons to which the conduct relates:

(Refer to direction 5)

Retail customers (including small and medium enterprise customers).

(b) Number of those persons:

(i) At present time:

Between 0 – 5

(ii) Estimated within the next year:

(Refer to direction 6)

.possibly 50 or more

(c) Where number of persons stated in item 3 (b) (i) is less than 50, their names and addresses:

n/a

4. Public benefit claims

(a) Arguments in support of notification:

(Refer to direction 7)

It will allow retail customers an opportunity to acquire or have demonstrated Dealer products and/or promotional products, which they will otherwise have to travel to a major shopping centre to acquire or have demonstrated or buy online without seeing a demonstration.

(b) Facts and evidence relied upon in support of these claims:

A majority (90%) of our customers live locally and would like the opportunity to see demonstrations of the Tbox and Thub from their local Retravision store rather than travelling to major centres or viewing online.

5. Market definition

Provide a description of the market(s) in which the goods or services described at 2 (a) are supplied or acquired and other affected markets including: significant suppliers and acquirers; substitutes available for the relevant goods or services; any restriction on the supply or acquisition of the relevant goods or services (for example geographic or legal restrictions):
(Refer to direction 8)

.Markets for the supply to retail consumers of phone (fixed & mobile) handheld computers and other telecommunication devices.

6. Public detriments

- (a) Detriments to the public resulting or likely to result from the notification, in particular the likely effect of the notified conduct on the prices of the goods or services described at 2 (a) above and the prices of goods or services in other affected markets:
(Refer to direction 9)

There are no foreseeable public detriments likely to result from the proposed conduct.

- (b) Facts and evidence relevant to these detriments:

The proposed conduct will not lessen competition because:

The Dealership does not have a substantial degree of market power in any relevant market based on regional population. The retail markets for the Dealer products and promotional products are characterised by intense competition and a large market of competitors.

7. Further information
