Subject: Withdrawal of Notification of Exclusive Dealing

Hi Simon,

Please be advised that Virginia Surety Company, Inc wish to withdraw our notification of exclusive dealing dated 13/12/2010 as lodged with the ACCC.

Our legal advice has confirmed that as this is a non-insured product and not an insurance policy there is no requirement to lodge a notification of exclusive dealing with the ACCC. This is as a result of the contract being between the dealer and the consumer and therefore not involving a Third Party.

Please don't hesitate to contact me should you have any further questions.

Regards,
