Dear Ms Hendrick,

Third line forcing notification N95534 lodged by SuperIQ Pty Ltd.

I refer to the above third line forcing notification lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 26 August 2011. The notification has been placed on the ACCC's public register.

SuperIQ Pty Ltd proposes to:

- provide a discount, allowance, rebate or credit in relation to its administration services on the condition that the customer or prospective customer acquires services associated with self-managed superannuation funds from suppliers preferred by SuperIQ, and
- refuse to provide a discount, allowance, rebate or credit in relation to its administration services for the reason that the customer or prospective customer does not acquire services associated with self-managed superannuation funds from preferred suppliers.

Legal immunity conferred by the notification commenced on 9 September 2011.

On the basis of the information that you have provided, it is not intended that further action be taken in this matter at this stage.

As with any notification, please note that the ACCC may act to remove the immunity afforded by the notification at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

This assessment has been made on the basis that Super IQ Pty Ltd will disclose all relevant terms and conditions to prospective clients.

A copy of this letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Hannah Ransom on (02) 6243 1255.

Yours sincerely
