Dear Ms Pritchard

Third line forcing notification N95568 lodged by Zoe Carrodus t/a Burlesque Hair

I refer to the above third line forcing notification lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 27 September 2011. The notification has been placed on the ACCC's public register.

Zoe Carrodus, a partner in a business trading as Burlesque Hair, proposes to offer members of Hume Building Society Ltd specific discounts on hair services.

Legal immunity conferred by the notification commenced on 11 October 2011.

On the basis of the information that you have provided, it is not intended that further action be taken in this matter at this stage. As with any notification, please note that the ACCC may act to remove the immunity afforded by the notification at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

This assessment has been made on the basis that Burlesque and Hume will disclose all relevant terms and conditions to prospective customers.

A copy of this letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please contact John Rouw on (03) 9290 1402.

Yours sincerely

Dr Richard Chadwick
