Dear Ms Pritchard

Third line forcing notification N95620 lodged by J Stay Pty Limited

I refer to the above third line forcing notification lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 27 October 2011. The notification has been placed on the ACCC's public register.

J Stay proposes to supply, or offer to supply, a booking and payment facility for accommodation and other travel services at a particular price from time to time on condition that the customer acquires the services of MasterCard and pays for the services using a Debit MasterCard.

Legal immunity conferred by the notification commenced on 10 November 2011. On the basis of the information that you have provided, it is not intended that further action be taken in this matter at this stage.

As with any notification, please note that the ACCC may act to remove the immunity afforded by the notification at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

This assessment has been made on the basis that J Stay will disclose all relevant terms and conditions to prospective clients.

A copy of this letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Clare McGinness on (03) 9290 6909.

Yours sincerely

Dr Richard Chadwick
