Dear Mr Foster

Third line forcing notification N93402 lodged by Football Queensland Ltd

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a final notice in respect of the third line forcing notification lodged by Football Queensland Ltd (FQ) on 28 April 2008 (the Notification). The effect of this notice is to revoke the statutory protection afforded by the Notification.

A copy of the ACCC's notice is attached. The ACCC's assessment of the Notification is set out in Chapter 5 of this notice.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101A of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal (the Tribunal) for its review.

An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this notice; that is, on or before 5 January 2011. If no application to review is lodged by this date, the statutory protection afforded by the Notification will cease to be in force on 16 January 2011.

An application for review of the ACCC's notice should be lodged directly with the Australian Competition Tribunal. The Australian Competition Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.
