Dear Mr Mansfield and Mr Reckless

Third line forcing notifications N96019 & N96033

I refer to the above third line forcing notifications lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 1 August 2012. The notifications have been placed on the ACCC's public register.

Jeff Mansfield and David Reckless (trading as Absolute Golf) propose to offer golf training services on condition that customers pay for those services with a Mastercard.

Legal immunity conferred by the notifications will commence on 15 August 2012.

On the basis of the information that you have provided, it is not intended that further action be taken in this matter at this stage.

As with any notification, please note that the ACCC may act to remove the immunity afforded by the notifications at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

This assessment has been made on the basis that you will disclose all relevant terms and conditions to prospective customers.

A copy of this letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact David Hatfield on (02) 6243 1266.

Yours sincerely

Dr Richard Chadwick
