Shopping Centre Council of Australia Ltd application for revocation of authorisations A91049 and A91050 and substitution of new authorisations A91329 and A91330 – interested party consultation

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) is currently conducting a consultation process in relation to the above mentioned application received from the Shopping Centre Council of Australia (the SCCA) on 21 August 2012.

The purpose of this letter is to invite you, as a potentially interested party, to comment on the issues raises in this letter and the SCCA's application.

Application for 'reauthorisation'

Attached is a summary of the authorisation process, including how to make a submission to the ACCC.

The SCCA is seeking reauthorisation for its Casual Mall Licensing Code of Practice (the Code) until 31 December 2017. Please find enclosed a copy of the SCCA's application.

A full copy of the application for 'reauthorisation' is also available on the ACCC's website www.accc.gov.au/AuthorisationsRegister.

Background

The Code relates to casual mall licensing, which involves the granting of a right to occupy part of the common area of a shopping centre for a short period of time (normally less than one month) – usually for product launches and demonstrations, stock clearance sales and brand awareness campaigns.

The ACCC previously authorised the Code for five years on 29 August 2007, and varied this authorisation on 30 January 2008 so that it would expire on 31 December 2012.

Request for submissions

The ACCC invites you to make a submission on the likely public benefits and effect on competition, or any other public detriment, from the proposed arrangements.

Further, the ACCC invites you to outline your general experience of the Code during the term of the previous authorisation. The ACCC would also welcome your views on the public benefits and anti-competitive detriments you consider have actually resulted from the Code during the previous authorisation period.

If you intend to provide a submission in relation to the SCCA's application for authorisation, please do so by 21 September 2012.

Alternatively, if you would like to provide comments orally, please contact Shane Chisholm using the details provided below to organise a suitable time.

Submissions, including oral submissions, will be placed on the ACCC's public register subject to any request for exclusion (guidelines are attached).

Timetable

The ACCC will progress its assessment of the application in a timely manner. An indicative timetable is set out below for your information.

29 August 2012	Public consultation process begins.

You can also forward this letter to any other party who may wish to make a submission to the ACCC regarding the application.
