Dear Mr Sellar

CALMS Ltd application for revocation of authorisation A91092 and substitution with A91276 – final determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a determination in respect of the application for application for revocation and substitution of authorisation lodged by Canberra After-hours Locum Medical Service (CALMS Ltd) on 23 September 2011.

A copy of the ACCC's final determination is attached, including a summary of its reasons.

For the reasons set out in its final determination, the ACCC revokes authorisation A91092 and grants authorisation A91276 in substitution, for CALMS Ltd to agree and set fee caps for the provision of after-hours primary medical care in the Australian Capital Territory. The ACCC grants authorisation for 10 years.

The ACCC's assessment is set out in Chapter Four of the final determination.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal for its review. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 19 March 2012. If no application to review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 20 March 2012.

An application for review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Australian Competition Tribunal. The Australian Competition Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.

For further information about the process involved in reviewing decisions in the Australian Competition Tribunal please refer to the tribunal's website located at <http://www.competitiontribunal.gov.au/>.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Marie Dalins on 03 9290 1893.

Yours sincerely
