Dear Mr Scott

Third line forcing notifications N95681 & N95682 lodged by CLA Trading Pty Ltd
& Eurofleet Pty Ltd

I refer to the above third line forcing notifications lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 24 January 2012. The notifications have been placed on the ACCC's public register.

CLA Trading Pty Ltd and Eurofleet Pty Ltd (trading together as Europcar) propose to offer vehicle rental services by Europcar to consumers at a discounted price (or with an allowance, rebate or credit) on condition that the consumers have also acquired goods or services of a particular kind or description from unrelated businesses in its loyalty partner program.

Legal immunity conferred by the notifications will commence on 14 February 2012.

On the basis of the information that you have provided, it is not intended that further action be taken in this matter at this stage.

As with any notification, please note that the ACCC may act to remove the immunity afforded by the notifications at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

This assessment has been made on the basis that CLA Trading Pty Ltd and Eurofleet Pty Ltd will disclose all relevant terms and conditions to prospective clients.

A copy of this letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Tanya Hobbs on (02) 6243 1029.

Yours sincerely
