Dear Mr Hamilton

Third line forcing notification N95778 lodged by Metroview Pty Ltd t/a XBC Business Centre

I refer to the above third line forcing notification lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 23 March 2012. The notification has been placed on the ACCC's public register.

XBC Business Centre proposes to offer a range of telecommunications and related goods or services (including mobile phones, cordless phones, fax machines, phone cards, other telecommunications equipment, software, hand held computers, data products and internet starter packs) and/or promotional goods or services (including vouchers, cinema tickets, electrical goods and accessories and food items) to customers on condition that they acquire telecommunications services and/or related goods or services from Telstra.

Legal immunity conferred by the notification commenced on 6 April 2012.

On the basis of the information that you have provided, it is not intended that further action be taken in this matter at this stage.

As with any notification, please note that the ACCC may act to remove the immunity afforded by the notification at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

This assessment has been made on the basis that XBC Business Centre will disclose all relevant terms and conditions to prospective customers.

A copy of this letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Tess Macrae on (03) 9290 1835.

Yours sincerely
