Dear Sir/Madam

Emirates and Flydubai applications for authorisation A91298 and A91299 – interested party consultation

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has received applications for authorisation from Emirates and Dubai Aviation Corporation (trading as Flydubai), and invites you to comment on the applications. Attached is a summary of the authorisation process including how to make a submission to the ACCC.

Broadly, Emirates and Flydubai are seeking authorisation to coordinate operations on international air transportation and air cargo services through an Affiliation Agreement.

A full copy of the application for authorisation, including a full description of the applicants and their proposed alliance, is available on the ACCC's website <www.accc.gov.au/AuthorisationsRegister>.

Interim authorisation

Emirates and Flydubai have also requested interim authorisation for their Affiliation Agreement pending the outcome of the ACCC's final decision on authorisation. The applicants seek interim authorisation to implement the Affiliation Agreement as soon as possible. They submit that this would enable them to begin marketing an integrated offer.

The ACCC endeavours to deal with requests for interim authorisation quickly. In deciding whether to grant interim authorisation, the ACCC is not required to undertake a full assessment of the benefit and detriment likely to arise as a result of the proposed conduct. Nevertheless, submissions in relation to interim authorisation are invited in this matter.

The ACCC decides whether to grant interim authorisation on a case by case basis and may take into account a range of factors, including harm to the applicant and other parties if interim authorisation is or is not granted, possible benefit and detriment to the public, the urgency of the matter and whether the market would be able to return to substantially its pre-interim authorisation state if the ACCC should later deny authorisation.

Submissions

The ACCC invites you to make a submission on the likely public benefits and effect on competition, or any other public detriment, from the proposed arrangements. Submissions are invited both in relation to the application for authorisation and in relation to the application for interim authorisation.

If you intend to provide a submission in relation to the applications for authorisation, please do so by 24 May 2012. Any submissions in relation to interim authorisation should be provided by 10 May 2012.

Alternatively, if you would like to provide comments orally, please contact Mark Basile on (03) 9290 1855 to organise a suitable time.

Submissions, including oral submissions, will be placed on the ACCC's public register subject to any request for exclusion (guidelines are attached).
