Dear Mr Carmody

Third line forcing notification N95838 lodged by RPT (QLD) Pty Ltd

I refer to the above third line forcing notification lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 30 April 2012. The notification has been placed on the ACCC's public register.

RPT proposes to supply or offer to supply a range of telecommunications and related goods or services (including mobile phones, cordless phones, fax machines, phone cards, software, hand held computers, data products and internet starter packs) and/or promotional goods or services (including vouchers, cinema tickets, electrical goods and accessories and food items) and proposes to give or allow a discount, allowance, rebate or credit in relation to these products to customers, on condition that they acquire telecommunication services and/or related goods or services from Telstra.

Legal immunity conferred by the notification will commence on 14 May 2012.

On the basis of the information that you have provided, it is not intended that further action be taken in this matter at this stage.

As with any notification, please note that the ACCC may act to remove the immunity afforded by the notification at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

This assessment has been made on the basis that RPT will disclose all relevant terms and conditions to prospective customers.

A copy of this letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Susan Philp on (02) 6243 1347.

Yours sincerely
