Dear Mr Bouris

Third line forcing notification N95882 lodged by VV Tech Pty Ltd

I refer to the above third line forcing notification lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 31 May 2012. The notification has been placed on the ACCC's public register.

VV Tech Pty Ltd (TLS) proposes to:

- (i) supply or offer to supply a TLS Product and/or Promotional Product to retail customers on the condition that the customer acquires or agrees to acquire telecommunications services or products or particular telecommunications services plans from Telstra;
- (ii) refuse to supply or refuse to offer to supply a TLS Product and/or Promotional Product to retail customers for the reason that the customer has not acquired or has not agreed to acquire telecommunications services or products or particular telecommunications services plans from Telstra;
- (iii) give or allow or offer to give or allow a discount, allowance, rebate or credit in relation to a TLS Product and/or Promotional Product to retail customers on the condition that the customer acquires or agrees to acquire telecommunications services or products or particular telecommunications services plans from Telstra.

Legal immunity conferred by the notification will commence on 14 June 2012.

On the basis of the information that you have provided, it is not intended that further action be taken in this matter at this stage.

As with any notification, please note that the ACCC may act to remove the immunity afforded by the notification at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

This assessment has been made on the basis that VV Tech Pty Ltd and Telstra will disclose all relevant terms and conditions to prospective customers.

A copy of this letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Mark Basile on (03) 9290 1855.

Yours sincerely

Dr Richard Chadwick
