Dear Mr Low

Third line forcing notifications N95885 - N95903 lodged by Kingmill Pty Ltd trading as Thrifty Car Rental & Ors

I refer to the above third line notifications lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 29 May 2012.

Kingmill Pty Ltd trading as Thrifty Car Rental (Thrifty) and its current licensees will offer to supply rental vehicles on the condition that the person renting the vehicle must acquire an e-toll facility with Road and Maritime Services (RMS) for the duration of the rental period.

Legal immunity conferred by the notification commenced on 12 June 2012.

On the basis of the information that you have provided, it is not intended that further action be taken in this matter at this stage.

As with any notification, please note that the ACCC may act to remove the immunity afforded by the notification at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

This assessment has been made on the basis that Thrifty and RMS will disclose all relevant terms and conditions to prospective customers.

A copy of this letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Imogen Hartcher-O'Brien on (02) 6243 1049.

Yours sincerely
