Dear Mr Theocarous

Third line forcing notification N96913 lodged by ACC Communications Pty Ltd t/a Telco Concepts

I refer to the above third line forcing notification lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 14 August 2013. The notification has been placed on the ACCC's public register.

ACC Communications Pty Ltd t/a Telco Concepts proposes to supply or offer to supply a range of telecommunications and related goods or services (including mobile phones, cordless phones, fax machines, phone cards, software, hand held computers, data products and internet starter packs) (TLS Products) and/or promotional goods or services (including vouchers, cinema tickets, electrical goods and accessories and food items) (Promotional Products) and proposes to give or allow a discount, allowance, rebate or credit in relation to these Products to customers, on condition that they acquire telecommunication services and/or related goods or services from Telstra.

Legal immunity conferred by the notification will commence on 28 August 2013.

On the basis of the information that you have provided, it is not intended that further action be taken in this matter at this stage.

As with any notification, please note that the ACCC may act to remove the immunity afforded by the notification at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

This assessment has been made on the basis that ACC Communications Pty Ltd and Telstra will disclose all relevant terms and conditions to prospective customers.

A copy of this letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Imogen Hartcher-O'Brien on (02) 6243 1049.

Yours sincerely
