Dear Sir/Madam

Shopping Centre Council of Australia Ltd application for revocation of authorisations A91049 and A91050 and substitution of new authorisations A91329 and A91330 – Final determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a determination in relation to the above mentioned application received from the Shopping Centre Council of Australia (the SCCA) on 21 August 2012.

The SCCA sought the revocation of authorisations A91049 and A91050 and their substitution with authorisations A91329 and A91330 for the SCCA Casual Mall Licensing Code of Practice.

A copy of the ACCC's determination is attached, including a summary of its reasons. For the reasons set out in its determination, the ACCC has decided to grant authorisation until 31 December 2017.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal for its review. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 27 February 2013. If no application to review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 28 February 2013.

An application for review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Australian Competition Tribunal. The Australian Competition Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.

For further information about the process involved in reviewing decisions in the Australian Competition Tribunal please refer to the tribunal's website located at <http://www.competitiontribunal.gov.au/>.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Anna Giannakos on (03) 9290 6920 or by email at anna.giannakos@accc.gov.au.

Yours sincerely
