Dear Ms Egan

Australian Medical Association (NSW) application for authorisation A91383
- final determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a determination in respect of an application to revoke a previous authorisation and substitute it with a new authorisation (re-authorisation) lodged by the Australian Medical Association (NSW) Limited.

A copy of the ACCC's determination and summary of its reasons is attached.

For the reasons set out in its determination, the ACCC revokes authorisation A91088 and grants authorisation A91383 until 30 December 2023.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal (the Tribunal) for a review of the determination. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before Friday, 27 December 2013. If no application for a review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on Monday, 30 December 2013.

An application for a review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Tribunal. The Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.

For further information about the Tribunal's process to hear applications for review of ACCC determinations please refer to the Tribunal's website at www.competitiontribunal.gov.au.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Gina D'Ettorre on 03 9290 1483.

Yours sincerely
