Dear Mr Stone

Third line forcing notification N96769 lodged by Tyres4U Pty Ltd

I refer to the above third line forcing notification lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 31 May 2013. The notification has been placed on the ACCC's public register.

Tyres4U will offer customers a 10% discount on the price of all tyres (including those on special) purchased at a Tyreright Service Centre or online (www.tyreright.com.au) on condition that the customer has acquired membership services from NRMA and is a current member.

Legal protection conferred by the notification will commence on 14 June 2013.

On the basis of the information that you have provided it is not intended that further action be taken in this matter at this stage.

As with any notification, please note that the ACCC may act to remove the legal protection provided by the notification at a later stage if it is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct.

This assessment has been made on the basis that Tyres4U and NRMA will disclose all relevant terms and conditions to prospective customers.

A copy of this letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Hayley Parkes on 03 9290 6926.

Yours sincerely

Dr Richard Chadwick
