It is not necessary to precisely define the applicable relevant markets affected as even in the narrowest potential market the notified conduct will not result in any lessening of competition.

6. Public detriments

The notified conduct would not result in public detriment, anti-competitive or otherwise, for the following reasons.

- News Corp Australia subscribers would be under no obligation to accept the offers from ART GALLERY BOARD;
- The general public would be free to acquire relevant goods or services from other providers without any obligation to acquire a News Corp Australia news service subscription.

Many businesses promote their products through customer loyalty programmes to increase awareness of new products or encourage general brand awareness and loyalty.

Many printed newspapers, magazines and online media services in Australia offer discount coupons or promotions to third parties' goods and services. This is to encourage loyalty to the publication or online service by customers and advertisers and increases competition between newspapers, media and online media services. The notified conduct would have no appreciable effect on competition between providers of news and information services.

The notified conduct would have no appreciable effect on competition between sellers of newspapers, whether supermarkets or otherwise.
