Commonwealth of Australia
Competition and Consumer Act 2010 — subsection 93 (1)
NOTIFICATION OF EXCLUSIVE DEALING

To the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission:

Notice is hereby given, in accordance with subsection 93 (1) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, of particulars of conduct or of proposed conduct of a kind referred to subsections 47 (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8) or (9) of that Act in which the person giving notice engages or proposes to engage.

1. Applicant

(a) Name of person giving notice:

N97358 Eat Now Services Pty Ltd (ACN 138 659 588) (“Eat Now”) of 767 Springvale Road, Mulgrave, Victoria 3170.

(b) Short description of business carried on by that person:

Catchoftheday.com.au Pty Ltd (ACN 149 779 939) (“Catchoftheday”) provides an online platform for retail online shopping offering special deals for a limited time to online customers.

Eat Now Services Pty Ltd (ACN 138 659 588) (“Eat Now”), which is one of Catchoftheday’s related entities, offers an online platform that allows consumers to order and pay for food and beverages from restaurants and take-away food outlets that are members of the Eat Now service.

(c) Address in Australia for service of documents on that person:

C/- Jeremy Goldman
Kliger Partners
Level 2, 280 Queen Street
Melbourne, VIC 3000

2. Notified arrangement

(a) Description of the goods or services in relation to the supply or acquisition of which this notice relates:

Food services.

(b) Description of the conduct or proposed conduct:

Catchoftheday and Eat Now offer to Eligible Customers of Paypal Australia Pty Ltd (ACN 111 195 389) (“PayPal”) a voucher that the customer can use for the payment of food ordered through Eat Now.

Eligible customers are PayPal’s customers that (“Eligible Customers”):

- Becomes a PayPal customer and signs up to the PayPal User Agreement,

- Downloads and uses an application provided by PayPal to order the food (“PayPal App”).

3. Persons, or classes of persons, affected or likely to be affected by the notified conduct

(a) Class or classes of persons to which the conduct relates:

Eligible Customers.

(b) Number of those persons:

(i) At present time:

2.6 million emails/offers will be sent out.

(ii) Estimated within the next year:

(Refer to direction 6)

Same as above

(c) Where number of persons stated in item 3 (b) (i) is less than 50, their names and addresses:

Not known

4. Public benefit claims

(a) Arguments in support of notification:

The described conduct will benefit the public because:

- It allows any person who order food through Eat Now using the PayPal App to obtain food at favourable prices,
- It will promote competition in the relevant market by encouraging competitors to make similar offers.

(b) Facts and evidence relied upon in support of these claims:

As above.

5. Market definition

Provide a description of the market(s) in which the goods or services described at 2 (a) are supplied or acquired and other affected markets including: significant suppliers and acquirers; substitutes available for the relevant goods or services; any restriction on the supply or acquisition of the relevant goods or services (for example geographic or legal restrictions):

The relevant market is the provision of food services.

In particular, the conduct relates to online marketing channels that allow consumers to order food online.

In Australia there are more than 15 online platforms that provide access to food deals. Those competitors provide substitutes to the services provided by Eat Now.

As a result, the market is highly competitive and the conduct of Catchoftheday and Eat Now will not have a negative impact on its competition.

6. Public detriments

- (a) Detriments to the public resulting or likely to result from the notification, in particular the likely effect of the notified conduct on the prices of the goods or services described at 2 (a) above and the prices of goods or services in other affected markets:

The described conduct does not represent a detriment to the public as:

- There are other online providers,
- Customers remain free to order food through Eat Now without becoming an Eligible Customer,
- Customers of Catchoftheday, Eat Now and PayPal are free to access to food services from other providers,
- The conduct does not limit other providers' capacity to compete against Catchoftheday and Eat Now,
- Other providers could implement similar arrangements for the provision of food services.

- (b) Facts and evidence relevant to these detriments:

Please refer to Attachment A containing copies of the webpages from some of the parties' competitors.
