Dear Mr Alati

Application for revocation of authorisation A91100 and substitution of new authorisation A91392 – draft determination and interim authorisation

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a draft determination in respect of the application for authorisation lodged by [Australian Medical Association Limited (AMA) and the AMA state and territory bodies in Victoria, South Australia, Western Australia, Northern Territory, Queensland and Tasmania (collectively referred to as the AMA) on 31 October 2013.

The ACCC has also granted the AMA interim authorisation to commence on 1 March 2014.

Draft determination

A copy of the ACCC's draft determination and summary of its reasons is attached.

For the reasons set out in its draft determination, the ACCC proposes to grant authorisation for ten years.

Interim authorisation

As any final decision made by the ACCC is unlikely to come into effect by the time the AMA's existing authorisation expires on 28 February 2014, the ACCC has decided to grant interim authorisation in respect of the application.

Interim authorisation protects the arrangements for which authorisation is sought from legal action under the relevant provisions of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 while the ACCC considers and evaluates the merits of the application.

The ACCC may review its decision on interim authorisation at any time. The ACCC's decision in relation to interim authorisation should not be taken to be indicative of whether or not final authorisation will be granted by the ACCC.

Next steps

Once the ACCC issues a draft determination, the Applicant or any interested party may make a written submission and/or request that the ACCC convene a 'pre-decision conference'.

A pre-decision conference provides the opportunity for interested parties to make oral submissions in relation to the draft determination. Conferences are conducted informally and while legal or professional advisers are able to attend they are not entitled to participate in the discussion. If you wish the ACCC to hold a pre-decision conference in relation to the draft determination you must notify the ACCC in writing by 5 February 2014.

If you wish to make a submission in response to the ACCC's draft determination, please lodge your submission by 12 February 2014. Submissions should be sent to adjudication@accc.gov.au

The ACCC will consider any submissions it receives, including any oral submissions made should a pre-decision conference be called, and will then release a final determination in relation to these applications.

Submissions will be placed on the ACCC's public register subject to any request for exclusion. Please see the ACCC's publication Guidelines for excluding information from the public register.

Timetable

The ACCC will continue to progress its assessment of the application in a timely manner. An updated indicative timetable is set out below for your information.

Indicative date	Stage in assessment process
31 October 2013	Lodgement of application and supporting submission
November 2013	Public consultation process
22 January 2014	Draft determination and interim authorisation
5 February 2014	Deadline for calling pre-decision conference
12 February 2014	Closing date for interested party submissions

March 2014	Final determination
