Seedvise Pty Ltd – application for authorisation A91406 – determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a determination in respect of the application authorisation lodged by Seedvise Pty Ltd on 17 January 2014.

Seedvise is seeking authorisation to collectively bargain on behalf of participating royalty managers with grain buyers over the terms and conditions on which end point royalties are collected and remitted to royalty managers (i.e. EPR Collection Agreements), including the collection fee paid to the grain buyers.

A copy of the ACCC's determination is attached, including a summary of its reasons. For the reasons set out in its determination, the ACCC has decided to grant authorisation until 3 July 2019.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal (the Tribunal) for a review of the determination. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 2 July 2014. If no application for a review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 3 July 2014.

An application for a review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Tribunal. The Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.

For further information about the Tribunal's process to hear applications for review of ACCC determinations please refer to the Tribunal's website at www.competitiontribunal.gov.au.
