Dear Hubert,

We hereby wish to acknowledge and support the Australian Paint Manufacturers Federations (APMF) proposal to apply a levy of $0.15/l for the purpose of collecting and managing end of life paint.

At Toxfree, we see firsthand the impacts of poor or non-existent management systems on our environment on a national scale. There is a clear need for an efficient and effective paint waste management model and the proposal put forward by the APMF provides a sound and sustainable approach to providing this solution.

Should you wish to discuss our comments further, please do not hesitate to contact me on via any of the contact details below.

Yours faithfully,

Jason Cran
