- (ii) Estimated within the next year:

(Refer to direction 6)

Unknown

- (c) Where number of persons stated in item 3 (b) (i) is less than 50, their names and addresses:

Not applicable.

4. Public benefit claims

- (a) Arguments in support of notification:

(Refer to direction 7)

The proposed conduct will provide the following benefits to the public:

- i. current and potential customers of amaysim will be provided with the opportunity to obtain benefits, discounts, allowances, rebates, group deals or prizes, at little or no additional cost when purchasing an Eligible amaysim Service;
- ii. the proposed conduct will not result in increased prices to consumers;
- iii. the proposed conduct will not result in any restriction or limitation on the ability for consumers to purchase an Eligible amaysim Service from other businesses which stock such products; and
- iv. competition in the relevant markets will be encouraged and promoted by encouraging competitors to provide similar Offers to consumers.

14 MAY 2015

The public benefits significantly outweigh any anti-competitive detriments arising from the proposed conduct.

- (b) Facts and evidence relied upon in support of these claims:

Please see the details referred to in paragraph 4(a) above. The terms and conditions for each Offer will be clearly referenced in all relevant marketing collateral and will be readily accessible to consumers.

5. Market definition

Provide a description of the market(s) in which the goods or services described at 2 (a) are supplied or acquired and other affected markets including: significant suppliers and acquirers; substitutes available for the relevant goods or services; any restriction on the supply or acquisition of the relevant goods or services (for example geographic or legal restrictions):
(Refer to direction 8)

The relevant affected market is the Australian market for the retail supply of mobile phone services.

These markets are characterised by the following:

- the presence of a large number of competitors;
- vigorous and effective competition amongst these competitors.

6. Public detriments

- (a) Detriments to the public resulting or likely to result from the notification, in particular the likely effect of the notified conduct on the prices of the goods or services described at 2 (a) above and the prices of goods or services in other affected markets:
(Refer to direction 9)

There will be little or no public detriment in relation to the notified conduct due to the following:

- Consumers will not be obliged or required to participate in the Offer upon purchasing an Eligible amaysim Service;
- Eligible amaysim Services will be available for purchase by consumers with or without the opportunity to take up the Offer;
- There will be little or no additional cost to consumers to participate in the Offer;
- Competitors in each of the relevant markets frequently run similar Offers, and there is nothing in the proposed conduct which would prevent them from continuing to do so;
- The relevant market is highly competitive for the reasons described in paragraph 5 above; and

14 MAY 2015

(f) Each Offer will generally be conducted for a limited period of time.

The applicant believes that the benefits of the proposed conduct significantly outweigh any anti-competitive detriment.

(b) Facts and evidence relevant to these detriments:

See details in (a) above.
