Dear Mr Mammen

Third line forcing notification N99180 lodged by Peet Funds Management Ltd

I refer to the third line forcing notification lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) by Peet Funds Management Ltd on 1 July 2016. It has been allocated the registration number N99180. The notification will be placed on the ACCC's public register which is available on the ACCC's website.

Notification N99180

The protection from legal action provided by the notification commences automatically 14 days after the lodgement date, unless the ACCC objects.

On the basis of the information that you have provided, and that the parties will disclose all relevant terms and conditions to customers, the ACCC does not object to the notification at this time.

If at any time circumstances change, or the ACCC receives further information, such that it is satisfied that the public benefits from the third line forcing conduct do not outweigh the public detriments, the ACCC may remove the protection provided by the notification.

Request for material to be excluded from the Public Register

I have also considered your request that the home design plans attached to your client's Form G be excluded from the ACCC's public register.

As you are aware, the ACCC is generally required under section 95 of the Act to place documents provided to it in relation to a notification on the ACCC's public register. The Act provides that a person submitting a document in relation to a notification may request that the document or parts thereof be excluded from the public register by reason of the nature of certain information contained in the document.

As a person authorised to make a decision for and on behalf of the ACCC in relation to such a request, I advise that the home design plans will not be placed on the public register.

A copy of this letter will be placed on the ACCC's public register.

Should you have any queries in relation to this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Luke Griffin on (02) 6243 1114.

Yours sincerely
