Dear Sir / Madam

Etihad and Air Serbia applications for authorisation A91563 & A91564 - Final determination

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) has issued a determination in respect of the application for authorisation lodged by Etihad and Air Serbia on 7 December 2016.

The applicants sought authorisation for a Commercial Cooperation Agreement to allow for coordination of pricing, scheduling and marketing activities and other co-operative activities.

A copy of the ACCC's determination is attached, including a summary of its reasons. For the reasons set out in its determination, the ACCC has decided to grant authorisation for ten years.

Application for review

Pursuant to section 101 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, a person dissatisfied with this determination may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal for its review. An application for review must be made within 21 days of the date of this determination; that is, on or before 26 April 2017. If no application to review is lodged by this date, the ACCC's determination will come into force on 27 April 2017.

An application for review of the ACCC's determination should be lodged directly with the Australian Competition Tribunal. The Australian Competition Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia.

For further information about the process involved in reviewing decisions in the Australian Competition Tribunal please refer to the tribunal's website located at <http://www.competitiontribunal.gov.au/>.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter please do not hesitate to contact Saraj Bhullar on (03) 9290 1941 or adjudication@acc.gov.au.

Yours sincerely
