
From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, 22 January 2021 3:42 PM
To: Bell, Simon; Channing, Darrell
Cc: Exemptions; [REDACTED]
Subject: Medicines Australia – ACCC Authorisation AA1000486 – fortnightly report 9 January 2021 – 22 January 2021

Dear Simon/Darrell,

In relation to the ACCC Authorisation AA1000486 (24 September 2020) and, specifically, in accordance with the Conditions of that Authorisation at paragraph 5.12, Medicines Australia provides the following fortnightly report on activities related to the Proposed Conduct.

In the period of 9 January 2021 to 22 January 2021, no meetings or discussions of the Medicines Australia/Generic and Biosimilar Medicines Association Working Group occurred and no decisions were made that fall under the Proposed Conduct.

Medicines Australia's next fortnightly update will cover the period of 23 January 2021 to 5 February 2021. Additional updates will be provided to the ACCC as required and in accordance with Medicines Australia's obligations under the authorisation.

We also consent to this email being published on the public register, with the appropriate privacy redactions.

This response was drafted in consultation with [REDACTED], CEO of Generic and Biosimilar Medicines Association.

Yours sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Manager, Industry and Regulatory Policy
Medicines Australia

*Please note that due to COVID-19, Medicines Australia's staff are now working from home. Revised contact details below. If your matter is urgent, please call my mobile in addition to emailing to ensure a prompt response.

17 Denison Street
Deakin ACT 2600
Australia

Main Office: [REDACTED]
Mobile: [REDACTED]
Email: [REDACTED]
Web: www.medicinesaustralia.com.au

