The cut to distribution guidance of circa 10% on pcp was a surprise to us. Reasons given for the cut were due to the uncertainty around COVID-19, upcoming capex spending and regulatory resets. We don't think the implications from COVID-19 warrant this type of cut to the distribution. AST has a strong growth capex pipeline to fund and has been leaning on its DRP to fund some of that growth. We thought it could continue to use the DRP where needed to inject equity but lowering the absolute value of the distribution would also reduce this funding pressure	12-May-20	RBC
We had [previously] expected AST to continue to fund growth through operation of the DRP	11-May-20	RBC
Ausnet's share price has fallen >10% since it announced its FY20 result in May and now offers a 5.5% distribution yield	24-Jun-20	RBC

Driving this growth will be the implementation of the ISP (e.g. project energy connect) and Snowy 2.0. We believe that there is upside to both our RA and CAB growth if both are implemented however will likely require equity to fund	27-Aug-19	Macquarie
Risk of further dividend cuts to enable forecasted levels of capex	25-Feb-20	Macquarie
Transgrid has $3.7bn of contingent projects associated with transmission links to other states. For SKI, with a 15% interest, this translates to ~$80-100m over the next 5 years i.e. $20m pa of new equity is required ie $0.01ps	25-Nov-19	Macquarie
Growth opportunities are being challenged by low returns	27-Aug-19	JPM
Liquidity risk associated with the upcoming need to equity fund Transgrid projects	27-Aug-19	JPM
Management noted that it is increasingly difficult to justify investment in interconnectors unless there is a change to the regulatory system that can provide a de facto risk-adjusted 4% equity return	27-Aug-19	JPM

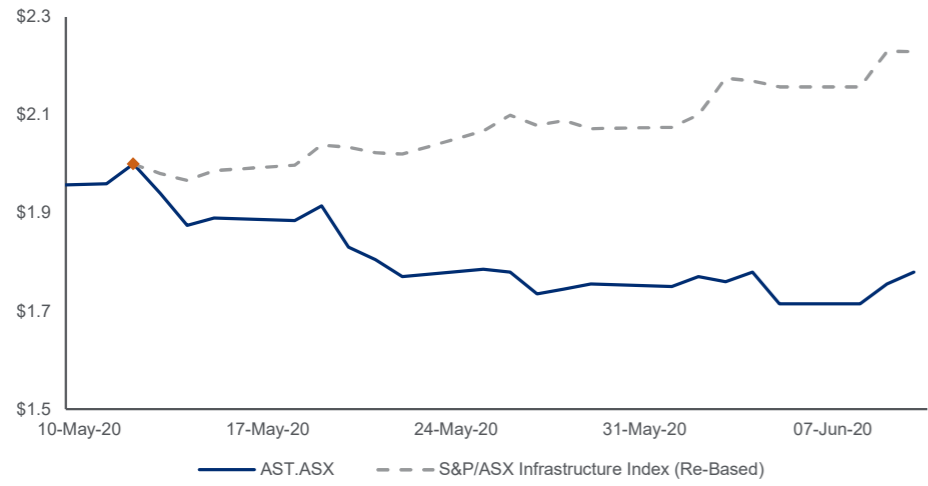

x Auckland Airport (AIA)

Quote	Date	Broker
AIA's 5-year aeronautical price reset provides a relatively benign EPS/DPS outlook notwithstanding a significant lift in capex	9-Jun-17	Forsyth Barr
The company's capex outlay of ~NZ$2.9bn between FY18-FY22 is supportive to its regulatory asset base and therefore aeronautical pricing, but adds to its funding and depreciation burden	9-Jun-17	Forsyth Barr
Limited earnings changes but greater balance sheet pressure	8-Jun-17	UBS
Capex burst could push company toward a small equity raise	9-Jun-17	DB
