

Collective bargaining class exemption notice form

1. Who is in the collective bargaining group?

Describe or list the current members of the group and those who may join the group in the future.

If you have a small group that will not change, you can list the names of all members.

If you expect to add new members over time, you should provide a general description of the members of the group. For example: A group of dairy farmers in the Manning Valley area in New South Wales.

Members of the TAB Agents Association of NSW (Association). The 62 current members as at 18 February 2025 are listed in the attached schedule.

2. Who does the group propose to collectively bargain with?

If you intend to negotiate with just one particular target business, or a small number of known target businesses, you can list the names of each target business.

If you do not yet know all the businesses or organisations you will bargain with (e.g. your group will run a tender) or you expect to add new target businesses over time, you should provide a general description of the type of target businesses the group intends to collectively bargain with. For example: Dairy processing companies.

TAB Limited (ACN 081 765 308) and affiliates (Tabcorp)

3. What does the group propose to collectively bargain about?

Describe the goods or services that the group proposes to bargain about with the target businesses. For example: Supply of raw milk.

The Association is a registered union of employers under the Industrial Relations Act 1996 (NSW) formed for the purpose of serving as a non-industrial organisation, promoting the interests of its members and liaising with Tabcorp.

The Association proposes to, on its own behalf and on behalf of its members, collectively negotiate new agreements with Tabcorp and collectively participate in dispute resolution with Tabcorp in relation to the supply of services to manage and staff Tabcorp retail betting agencies in NSW.

The ACCC had previously granted a collective bargaining class exemption to the Association for this conduct, which expired on 30 September 2024. The Association has not engaged in any of the conduct the subject of the previous authorisation since at least 30 September 2024.

4. Contact details

A person the ACCC can contact in relation to the collective bargaining arrangements. This can be any member of the group or a nominated representative who is able to provide the ACCC with further information about the group if required. The contact person's name, telephone number, email address and signature will be redacted when the ACCC places this notice on its public register.

Please advise the ACCC as soon as possible if the contact person, or their details, change.

Contact person (name and, if relevant, position):	[Redacted]
Telephone number:	[Redacted]
Email address:	[Redacted]
Signature of contact person:	[Redacted]
