

Submission by Adeline Barham-12 September 2025

There is no way the supermarkets should be reimbursed for their REDcycle costs. We all want to recycle soft plastics but not at the community's cost. It's not right and this stewardship scheme makes no sense.