

Submission by [REDACTED] -25 October 2024

I agree with the Virgin Australia and Qatar Airways proposal to operate wet leases, however I do believe that there should be a sunset clause whereby Australian based employees (engineers, pilots, cabin crew) can operate these flights. Not having a defined end period of the wet lease reduces career opportunities for Australian based employees. The sunset clause should be after a specified time period such as 2-3 years.