

Submission by Bruce Jensen-21 August 2025

I believe that the supermarkets and other providers should be reducing their use of plastics overall, before they get into the environment. That which is left should be recycled within their state of use, if possible, but none should leave Australia. If the Federal Government has to step in at any part of the usage chain, then so be it!!