Director, Competition and Exemptions
ACCC
Canberra ACT 2601

Dear Tony,

RE: Virgin Australia and Qatar Airways Application

I believe that Qatar's initial restriction on additional flights to Australia was not in the best interest of competition and not in the best interest of Australia.

As a result, there should be no restrictions on the Virgin Australia Qatar proposal.

The ACCC was originally established to make sure there was a level playing field and now has the opportunity to rectify this anomaly.
