

Submission by Heidi TRUDINGER-24 August 2025

Supermarkets are making record profits already, how dare they try and make more money out of something they are fully complicit in!! The amount of plastic packing BEFORE consumers even purchase- to wrap crates of stock, is beyond worrying, so wasteful. We need to have our soft plastics recycled without it becoming another way of big business controlling or profiting from us .