

Submission by Kathy Dobinson-25 August 2025

Government should not fund the supermarkets to recycle soft plastics. This money should go to local councils or the State to implement recycling of soft plastics. Supermarkets make profits our councils do not and they have to deal with waste.