

Submission by Maniq Jay-26 August 2025

We need big brands to stop using soft plastic in the first place, they're ones creating waste Public funds must deliver positive environmental outcomes No subsidies for Coles or Woollies for paying back REDcycle costs, when they didn't dispose of the soft plastics responsibly Real targets must be set and outcomes monitored and penalties imposed if they do not meet the targets