Subject: AA1000542 – Honeysuckle Health – submission

To Whom It May Concern,

I write in my capacity as a consumer of health care in Australia. I value strongly the choice of doctor that I have available to me under the current system. I view the issue of choice as critical to my welfare and as such I strongly oppose the proposal by Honeysuckle Health and nib to introduce a system which places that important consideration under question.

I trust the Commission will consider this when it makes its final determination in relation to this application

Regards,

Mark Carmichael
