

Submission by Taimi Clinch-28 August 2025

Redcycle plastics program in supermarkets should not allow supermarkets to prosper financially. They sell the stuff that comes in plastic. They should be part of the solution in reducing plastics. If they are demanding reimbursement for the redcycle program then it should be tied to a fund to create innovation in this space not to go direct to their bottom line.